PARTICULARS OF THE ORGANISATION, FUNCTION AND DUTIES

Name of the Institution: Aghorekamini Prakashchandra Mahavidyalaya

Address: Subhasnagar, Bengai, Hooghly. PIN-712611

About Us: Established in 1959, Aghorekamini Prakashchandra Mahavidyalaya, named after the venerable parents of Dr Bidhan Chandra Roy—the then Chief Minister of West Bengal—is a rural college that has been serving as a beacon of hope for the local learners almost since the earliest decade of Indian independence. Initially it was affiliated to The University of Calcutta but since 1961 it has been affiliated to The University of Burdwan.

The majority of students, benefited by this institution, hail from underdeveloped sections of the society. A considerable portion of them are first generation learners. For these young learners, living far away from cities and deprived of the advantages of urban life, this college is a gateway to higher education as well as empowerment.

Situated in the midst of lush surroundings, our college boasts of a sprawling and eco-friendly campus (occupying 14.2 acres) accommodating eight large buildings—namely Kala Bhavan, Vijnan Bhavan, Patha Bhavan, Sanskriti Bhavan, Banijya Bhavan, the Old Administrative Building, the New Administrative Building and an Indoor Sports Training Centre—housing facilities for the holistic development of our students. Students, applying for admission to our college, are offered a wide spectrum of subjects to choose from. In total 19 honours and 18 general subjects are taught by 74 teachers who always keep updated regarding the latest developments in their fields of study.

Apart from academics and sports, our college encourages students to take part in NCC and NSS programmes so as to instil patriotism and a sense of social responsibility in them.

Accredited by NAAC in 2004 and awarded Grade B, our college has been trying ever since to overcome all limitations and continue on the path of upgrading itself.

Vision

In a country like India, with the majority of its population living in rural regions, participation of rural students in the process of nation-building is essential. As the rural location of the college enables it to cater to the needs of students, mostly first generation learners, belonging to economically handicapped families, Aghorekamini Prakashchandra Mahavidyalaya has a vision to become a pre-eminent rural college of the country fostering intellect, creativity and character in this section of students; thus, conditioning them to become the leaders of the society and builders of the nation.

Mission

- Imparting 'Total Education' to students in the true sense of the term, without confining the process to a mere academic exercise in terms of examinations and results.
- Providing state of the art infrastructure and facilities.
- Sustaining the internal qualities.
- Counselling students to build up their future career.
- And, finally, improving the satisfaction level of all stake-holders.
